Thanksgiving Offering Greatest In History

Mr. J. W. Ervin

The most oft repeated question at Barium Springs is not about the weather - it is, "Where is Mr. Ervin?" and the person who gets the most fan mail at Barium is Mr. John Wesley Ervin. His fan mail consists of matters like these: "Please fix the door on the dinning room." "Please fix the screen on my bedroom window." "Please put in some window glass, etc."

You've guessed it - Mr. Ervin is the main repair man, and he has something to do every day ror almost everybody at Barium. In addition to that, he has charge of the big repairs, and there isn't a building at Barium Springs that doesn't show evidence of his handiwork. His last and biggest job was complete renovation of the Lottie Walker Building, and you would have to have seen that building before and afterwards to appreciate the magnitude of that job. Rumple Hall, the Infirmary, the Baby Cottage, the school building have had their "faces lifted" under Mr. Ervin's supervision.

He can "start right from scratch" and build you a building, too. About the most complicated example of this is the new mill house; there are so many gadgets and special arrangements in that mill that a

The Agnes Myers Memorial Offering

In looking over the Thanksgiving offerings from the hundreds of Churches, Sunday Schools and Auxiliaries of the Synod of North Carolina there are many that are notable and outstanding. Perhaps the casual reader would scarcely pause at the names of two churches in Wilmington Presbytery, Delgado which gave $165.33 and Topsail which gave $126.65 for the 1944 Thanksgiving offering, yet for those particular churches those amounts represent as liberal an offering as any received in this most generous year.

If we look back 19 years ago Delgado gave $17.00 for Thanksgiving. Topsail gave $24.40. That level of giving was maintained more or

Life At Barium Through the Eyes of the Children

For several months we have been carrying a series of letters written by members of last years Senior Class in answer to questions sent in by members of a young people's organization. The letters herewith on Discipline and Health are the last of the series.

DISCIPLINE

It is my purpose in this letter to answer questions concerning discipline here at the institution.

In high school we are punished by having to come back to school on Saturday afternoon from two to four o'clock. The reason for this is that every person has a special job to do after school until supper and if he is kept in after school, it really lets him out of some other work. The teacher who is punishing sets the amount of time the pupils are to stay but it can't be over two hours. Whoever comes back on Saturdays cannot expect to get a good grade on deportment. The grammar school pupils are punished by staying extra time in the afternoons, writing compositions, or any number of things the teacher may choose.

Preacher Paragraphs

By Rev. T. C. Cook

GOD'S OTHER SHEEP

Jesus, the Good Shepherd, one day spoke words that should forever put us straight concerning the proper attitude to take regarding the great Foreign Mission task of the Church. Said Jesus, "Other sheep I have which are not of this fold, them also I must bring." We cannot take seriously these words of our Lord and not believe in Foreign Missions. Many (all too many within the Church) have either never heard Christ's words, or having heard, have never considered them seriously.

From ten to thirty per cent of our people (Church members) hold to an attitude of complete indifference. A large proportion accept Missions along with everything else as a matter of course manifesting no zeal. A third group exercises an attitude of uncertainty, finding it difficult to make up their minds. A fourth group is very frankly opposed to Foreign Missions. They are like the man who wrote across the back of every check he placed in the collection plate the words: "Not one cent for Foreign Missions." Finally, there are those, and I believe they are in the majority, who not only believe in

Bond Funds For Church Still Climbing

In the January, 1944, issue of The Messenger, Mr. Milton wrote, "On January 17th, the maturity value of bonds in the possession for a proposed church and educational building of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home was $26,100.00 and $68.55 of cash on hand."

In the year since those words were written the Memorial Funds have had a phenominal growth. Today we can report that the maturity value of our Memorial Bonds is $44,675.00, being an increase in maturity value in one years time of $18,575.00. The actual value of our Memorial Bonds is $33,279.95.

The increase in this fund was greatly accelerated by two very generous memorials placed here

Concord Presbytery Met In Little Joe's Church In January

Concord Presbytery held its mid-winter meeting in Little Joe's Church here at Barium Springs on January 16th, 1945. The opening sermon was preached by the moderator, Dr. Carl R. Pritchett and the subject of his sermon was "The Patience of Faith." He took his text from Hebrews, the tenth chap-

Churches Have Already Passed Peak of $64,838.34 Which Was Given In 1943

Again this year the Presbyterians of North Carolina have surpasses the great offering of the previous year. The offering of the 1943 Thanksgiving was an all time high for this institution. Already that fine record has been broken. Last year on April 17th when the books were closed the Thanksgiving Offering from the churches stood at $64,838.34. As we go to press the amount received to date on the 1944 Thanksgiving Offering is $66,572.11, this is

First Consideration

We probably, some of us at least, need to recall that a weakness among us these days is to build fine, well-equipped houses and make things very showy and attractive while we are not giving sufficient attention to child psychology and all the things that go with its study. We do not make the charge that it is the weakness of our day, but we will boldly say that it is a weakness. There is a great temptation to put emphasis upon numbers. There is also the temptation of counting buildings and talking about the physical

We had so many things in last month's Messenger that the football picture was crowded. Here it is - take a good look at these boys' pictures. They did manful work for Barium last fall, and they enabled us to walk around with our chins a little higher and our shoulders a little further back than would otherwise have been the case. They earned some remarkable victories and all in all made a season's record not to be ashamed of.

Boys from this same group are carrying on into basketball, and up to the present time they have lost only two games. They have won victories; their record is just a trifle better than the girls'.

Without attempting to write about the individual games, the basketball scores are as follows:

Barium 32, Cool Springs 31.
Barium 34, Scotts 36.
Barium 32, Scotts 25.

Barium 45, Mooresville 27.
Barium 27, Statesville 25.
Barium 43, Kannapolis 48.

At this writing both boys and girls have lost two games in conference play. They might still come back and land on top; it has been done!

plant. So much is said about the receipts—that they are larger this year than last and that last year they were larger than the year before.

Then we are inclined to run about the country and flit from place to place seeking publicity and, in this way, pushing the work. Many things come in to take time and strength while the great problem of giving the child better training is pushed off for a more favorable opportunity. Few of us are giving the time that we should to conferences in which the children and their difficulties are discussed. It would be interesting to know how many of our Orphanages are having weekly, or even monthly, meetings in which the staff gathers together to give joint discussion to problems of the children. But ought the child be put off for anything? Ought not we to be making constant effort to understand each child and especially the difficult child so that we may be worth more to him? How many a little fellow is discouraged and needs encouragement? How many lack the personal touch and the vital, living friendship of an older person? The child is the main thing. A building is a small thing. Every building is erected for the good of the child and for his service. The child comes first. The institution is organized for his benefit. It is for him that we solicit funds.

Let us examine our hearts and ask whether we are giving the child first lace. If we are neglecting him or pushing him off for any cause, we might as well admit that our efforts are vain. The study of the individual child should stir our united efforts. What is good for the child? What was the institution built for? What is all our income meant to do? Let's get down to the fact in the case. The child is the first consideration—The Connie Maxwell.

Life At Barium

Cottage discipline is very different from that of school. Children from ages two to eleven are sent to bed early, spanked, made to sit or stand in the corner, and do extra work. Ages twelve to eighteen are given extra work to do, kept from the show or town, and if they do something very against the rules several times like going to town or riding without permission they are sent away from the institution.

Although there is not much need for discipline, especially among the high school pupils, when we are punished we usually see the need of it.

Thank you for your interest in the orphanage, and hope that I have answered all the questions you wanted to know.

Yours respectfully,
Mary Alice Stevens.

HEALTH

I am going to try to give you the general facts about the health of our Barium family.

When the children are sick, they are taken to the infirmary, where they are cared for until they are well again. Our nurse, Mrs. McNatt, is a graduate nurse. Our doctor does not live on the campus, but in Statesville which is five miles from Barium. Dr. Herman is considered as our doctor and can be had at a very short notice if needed. All our operations are performed at Davis Hospital.

Each child is examined every year by Dr. Herman, and also his teeth are checked by the dentist who comes to our campus and remains several days. At certain times during the year we are vaccinated for typhoid and given the test for tuberculosis.

To keep us from having so many colds, during the winter, Mr. Johnston has placed on each table in the dining room cod liver oil vitamin pills, which may be taken three times a day.

The general health of our family is excellent; seldom do we have any absence from school.. Very few of the alumni of our home have been rejected on account of health by the medical staff of the U. S. Army.

There are five girls at the infirmary who help with the cleaning up. Food for the patients is cooked in the building.

I have enjoyed writing you this information. We hope you can visit our home here sometime.

Respectfully yours,
Martha Price.

during the Thanksgiving season.

One for $1,500.00 by Mr. Jack Wagner and Mrs. A. W. Barringer in memory of Mr. and Mrs. C. H Turner. Another from Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Barringer in amount of $500.00 was given in memory of Mr. W. M. Barringer.

As this fund steadily grows it brings nearer to realization the dream of a worshipful, beautiful church here that will put the Church back where it belongs in the position of the most beautiful and the best appointed building on the campus of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home.

less until the Thanksgiving of 1943 when Delgado which had given $13.00 in 1942 gave $137.00 in 1943, and Topsail that had given $83.00 in 1942, gave $125.00 in 1943.

We have been informed that this wonderful development was the result of the work of the pastor's wife, Mrs. C. C. Myers. Mrs. Myers began in her class of boys the keeping of a little bank. This was done in each church. The banks were little dime store banks. During the year the banks were on hand each Sunday. They were opened the last Sunday before Chirstmas, and great was the interest and enthusiasm of the boys of the class when at last the banks were opened and the money counted. Such enthusiasm is contageous. The other classes of the Sunday School adopted the same method with the phenominal results mentioned above. Now we are told all the members of the Sunday School eagerly await the opening of the banks on the last Sunday before Christmas.

Mrs. Myers has passed on. At the request of the Sunday School this offering is called the Agnes Myers Memorial Thanksgiving Offering.

In this time when all services for the children are at a higher price than before the emergency, it is indeed gratifying that our people have recognized the increased needs and so generously have provided for them.

Mr. J. W. Ervin

grain of wheat hardly realizes when it ceases to be wheat and becomes part of a tasty sackful of cow feed.

Mr. Ervin knows where to get every article that is needed in keeping up the property at Barium. He knows where to locate the men with the special skills to do the work that has to be done - be he painter, tinsmith, millwright, or what-have-you.

One of the constant jobs which peeks up on rainy days is keeping furniture in condition, and Mr. Ervin's shop does a mighty good job in this line. We have added a new tool here and there until his shop has developed into quite an enterprise, although architecturally it doesn't look like anything at all. It has just "growed up", so to speak.

Mr. Ervin looks after the lawns, which means keeping up two power mowing machines, and keeping these machines operating with boys who insist on each one finding out what makes these machines run. You can guess how these investigations often turn out. These and the other headaches to which a trouble shooter is heir have not caused Mr. Ervin's hair to turn gray, but it has caused a good deal of it to leave him. The expression on his face, however, hasn't suffered. He can still laugh and is pretty good company.

One of Mr. Ervin's special charges is the football field, and somehow, through his ministrations, it gets more beautiful every year.

Mr. Ervin hasn't been connected with Barium so long as some of the real old timers, but he has been here long enough to become part of the institution, and the place is better because of Mr. Ervin.

We have hopes that, no matter how good he is now, he will get better during the years because he has a father living with him who has seen many more summers than Mr. Ervin; in fact, his birthdays are so numberous that he can now brag about them, but he still retains his zest in living and is the most consistent and constant football and baskeetball fan in the neighborhood.

The more young Mr. Ervin grows like his father, the more we like him, and we like him a lot already!

Concord Presbytery

ter the thirty sixth verse through the eleventh chapter and first verse. As Dr. Pritchett was the retiring moderator his successor who was chosen by acclamation was Reverend Thomas H. Spence who is the curator of the Presbyterian Foundation at Montreat.

The Presbytery was delighted to receive at this time Dr. Roy E. Hoke from Davidson College; also Reverend Robert Turner who comes to us as the new Executive Secretary was received from Mecklenburg Presbytery where he has been the very popular pastor of the Monroe Church. Mr. Turner is familiarly known to the young people of our Presbytery as "Pop" Turner as he had charge of our young people's work and our conferences for some years while he was pastor of the Bethpage Church. We are glad for him to return to our Presbytery. The other new comer in our Presbytery is Reverend John H. McKinnon who comes from Maxton Church to be the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Concord.

We were sorry to lose our veteran presbyter who at one time was superintendent of Home Missions in the Presbytery, Dr. J. E. Flow. Dr. Flow, who is now supplying churches in Abingdon Presbytery asked for a certificate of transfer to that Presbytery and this certificate was granted with much reluctance.

Dr. W. C. McLaughlin, now serving a church in Burlington, N. C., spoke at Presbytery in connection with the Foreign Mission report and his topic was "The Place of The Church In The World of Today." Dr. McLaughlin, from his long experience as a minister in China was well qualified to give us a very illuminating study of the mission and opportunity of the church in the world crisis and in the days to come. Another item which always elicits much interest is the election of the Commissioners of the General Assembly. The next meeting of the General Assembly will be in Montreat, North Carolina on the 24th day of May, 1945 at 7:30 P. M.

Our Commissioners for this Assembly were elected as follows: Principals: Ministers, N. E. Oplinger, W. L. Lingle, W. B. Heyward, C. H. McLeod—Elders, Wilson Warlick, J. T. Pritchett, J. C. Query, J. W. Taylor—Alternates: Ministers, J. K. Parker, J. T. Barham, George M. Wilcox, B. B. Shankel—Elders, C. F. Thomason, J. H. Shuford, Walter Bobbitt, W. F. Ramseur. Reverand J. T. Barham, the successful pastor of the Poplar Tent Church was nominated as moderator for the meeting of the Presbytery which will be held at the Concord Church, Loray, N. C. on April 10th. Members of Presbytery enjoyed a very delightful dinner served by the folks here at Barium. As the meal was being concluded, Presbytery adopted the following resolution of thanks which was read by Dr. A. A. McLean, "Concord Presbytery. hereby expresses its appreciation of the privilege of meeting in the Barium Springs community. It is always a help and inspiration to be here, to have a meal in the dining room, and to associate with the boys and girls. We thank you most heartily for the entertainment."

There were 32 ministers and 32 elders representing churches present. Altogether it was a most delightful occasion.

Preacher Paragraphs

Foreign Missions, but who are enthusiastic about it, and who not only pray for, but support, and oftentimes, either go themselves, or send their sons and daughters.

Christ has forever put us right on the Foreign Mission question. He would have us know that the "field is the world"; that all men everywhere need to be told the good tidings of Jesus and His love. You will notice Jesus said, "them also I must bring." Why did He put it that way? If we can find a satisfactory answer to that question, we shall have found a way out of any indifference or opposition we may have acquired regarding Foreign Missions.

Jesus, to begin with, had a full realization of the urgency of Missions. Statistics show that Christianity is not gaining upon heathenism, but that heathenism is gaining upon Christianity. The earth's population now is about 2,000,000,000. More than a billion of these are heathen, and according to the experts, they are increasing faster by natural propagation than the Church by spiritual regeneration. We must remember also that the heathen are not only fast coming into the world, but that they are fast going out. Since Christ was here, about 65 generations of the earth's inhabitants including countless numbers of heathen, have passed away. In China alone over 12 million heathen die every year. In the world at large fully 35 millions of those who have never heard of Christ pass out yearly into eternity. In the light of these facts is it any wonder that Christ realized the urgency of Missions? Do we need to wonder that Paul cried, "Woe is me if I preach not the Gospel"?

Jesus also realized the necessity of Missions. Jesus believed that the world needed Him and what He through His Church could give. He knew man's need for God, for freedom from guilt and the power of sin; assurance of future existence. Jesus knew that there was "none other name given under heaven among men whereby men might be saved." Jesus knew there could be no compromise with the other religions; that one could not take the best the non-christian religions had to offer, patch them up, and let them serve as a substitute for His Gospel. And history's verdict has shown Christ to have been eternally right.

Furthermore, Christ's honor was at stake. He had predicted one fold and one shepherd. To keep His word, He had to bring those other sheep into His fold.

So firmly did Jesus believe in the ultimate success of the Missionary enterprize, He gave His life. His followers through the ages, since He died have also believed, and have also died.

The list is too long to be printed. One must however mention a few. There were His immediate disciples. There were early Church fathers, many of whom suffered torture and martyrdom. Standing out in the long procession of faithful soldiers of the cross are men like Paton, Judson, Martyn, Borden, Keith-Falconer, Livingstone, the Stams, and our own Vinson.

Present conditions make it difficult to believe in the ultimate triumph of Missions: More than a billion still out of Christ; millions here at home not members of any church; crime on the increase; the war and all the dozens of other evils that raise their ugly heads on every side.

But we can believe. Christ says "yes." We have the assurance of prophecy; the assurance of the Christian conviction; and the assurance of history.

God help us all to realize as did Christ the urgency, the need, the uniqueness of Missions. God give us bright hope. God help us to pray, to give, to go. God hasten that glad day when we can sing, not Jesus shall reign, but rather doth reign where'er the sun does his successive journeys run.

An American soldier now in Northern Ireland is said to have written home:

"Dear Dad: Gue$$ what I need mo$t of all. That'$ right. $end it along. Be$t wihe. Your $on, Tom."

The father replied: "Dear Tom: NOthing ever happens here. Write us aNOther letter aNOn. NOw we have to say good-bye."
